THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE

Victoria Has Reigned Over England Sixty Years.

CELEBRATING THE GREAT EVENT.

Appropriate Services Held in All the Churches of England-The Queen Worships at St. George's Chapel in Windsor. Every Large City in Europe.

London, June 21.—Queen Victoria began the celebration of her jubilee, commemorating the 60th year of her reign, yesterday, as was befitting her entire career, before the altar of her faith. Throughout London, the United Kingdom and the empire, in every cathedral, church or chapel of the established church of England was held services similar to those at St. George's chapel, Windsor, where her majesty paid her devotions and offered solemn thanks to God.

The announcement that the services at St. George's chapel would be private and for the members of the royal family, prevented the gathering of a large and the services were simple. Her majesty sat in the chair of state immediately in front of the communion rail and just beside the brass plate whose inscription designates the spot which was the temporary place of interment of the prince consort.

Ordinary morning prayers began with a short exhortation from First Timothy. After the first collect, a special collect was read and instead of the usual prayer for the queen and royal family, two special prayers were substituted.

A special prayer for unity was said, and there special psalms and gospels nsed instead of those for the day, the gospel being sixteenth verse of the twenty-second chapter of St. Matthew: "Render, therefore, unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's.

There was no sermon, but a special hymn written by the Right Rev. William Walsham, lord bishop of Wakefield, with music by Sir Arthur Sullivan, was sung at her majesty's request.

The choir of St. George's chapel rendered the musical portion of the service, Sir Walter Parrett presiding at the organ. The service lasted 40 minutes, the queen remaining seated throughout and following closely the special prayers and hymn.

At the end there was a pause. The queen, with bowed head, continued in silent prayer. Then followed a touching scene which will ever linger in the memory of those who witnessed it. Summoning Empress Frederick, who bowed low at her side, the queen kissed her on both cheeks. The Duke of Connaught and the others of the family followed, receiving on bended knee a similar token of affection. In many cases the recipient was kissed several

The queen was profoundly moved, and tears rolled down her cheeks. At last, and evidently with great reluc-tance, she beckoned her Indian attendant, and leaning on her arm, passed slowly out of the chapel, the entire eongregation standing, the soft light falling through the multi-colored windows and the exquisite strains of the organ rising and swelling beneath the gothie bannered roof. It was a scene never to be forgotten and thrilled all present with strong emetions. At St. George's chapel, Windsor, in the afternoon, a special musical service was held at which most of the members of the royal family, except the queen and Empress Frederick, who had attended the morning service, were present. Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" was sung by Madame Albani, Edward Lloyd and the choir of the chapel, assisted by the Windsor and Eton choral and Madrigal societies. Several of the pulpits of the city were occupied by American preachers all of whom alluded in the most feeling terms to the queen's life and character. Bishop Coxe preached at the Windsor parish church and Bishop Whipple at All Saints, Margaret street. Rev. O. W. H. Milburn, chaplain of the United States senate, preached at the Queen's Park Congregational chapel, in the Harrow road.

The morning papers today are wholly devoted to the jubilee special articles, personal memoirs and reminescences of the queen and the royal family.

Extermination on the Island Is Appailing.

THE DEATH RATE INCREASING.

Should the War Be Prolonged Fifteen Months the Western Half of the Island Will Be Entirely Depopulated-Why Mr. Woodford Goes to Spain-Mrs. Ruiz Will Not Negotlate With Spain.

New York, June 21.—A dispatch to The World from Havana says: Extermination on the island is an appalling, actual fuct. The death rate is actually increasing. A prominent Spanish medical officer who has full knowledge of the interior says that should the war be prolonged 15 months the western half of the island will be entirely depopulated. The death rate is likely to double next month. Contagion will then mow down the people rapidly. The rains have turned the interior into quagmires in many places. The trocha is a pesti-lential ditch. The soldiers are suffering terribly from fever and dysentery. Little of the smallpox vaccination is effective. With foresight thousands of pacificos might have been saved by vaccination.

General Woodford will return to Washington before the end of this month, and will remain there about one week, conferring with the President and secretary of state.

MRS. RUIZ'S POSITION.

She Will Not Deal With Spain Under Any Conditions.

New York, June 21.—In regard to the report that Spain, through Prime Minister Canovas, has agreed to settle the claims of Mrs. Ruiz, the widow of Dr. Ruiz, against the Spanish government by the payment of $40,000 with the understanding that the United States will not press an official claim, Mrs. Ruiz said:

"Never will I accept anything direct from the Spanish. I am in the hands of the United States government, and all overtures from Spain must be made to it. Whatever the government advises me to do I will do, but Spain must not try to deal with me.

Mrs. Ruiz said she did not known whether she would accept $40,000 or not. She intimated that if the government was satisfied she would be.

cenator Perkins Has Something to Say About Hawali.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Senator Perkins, Republican, of California, is strongly disposed to join his Democratic colleague. Senator White, in opposition to the proposed annexation of Hawaii. "I am familiar with the islands," said he, "and I am very doubtful as to the wisdom of this policy. There is one point of some moment," continued Mr. Perkins, "that I have not yet seen touched upon. Within the last year or two there have been a large number of merchant vessels built on the Clyde for the Hawaiian trade. They fly the Hawaiian flag, but are English vessels. Under the proposed treaty those ships would naturally become entitled to American registry, for they would come in with the islands.

GEORGE C. PERKINA

"There is nothing in the treaty to prevent them from coming in, nor to prevent the Englishmen from building more vessels in anticipation of annexa-tion, and claiming American registry for all of them. In that case they would probably soon take away all of our coastwise trade and demoralize for some years our shipyards.

"There is another and perhaps more interesting question involved. The annexation of Hawaii would, it seems to me, utterly ruin the beet sugar inclustry that is now beginning to assume try that is now beginning to assume considerable proportions in California and other parts of the west.

The Tariff Talk in the Senato Nearing an End.

ADJUSTING THE DIFFERENCES.

Senators Do Not Hope to Conclude tho & Consideration of the IIII by the Ciote of the Present Week, but They Expect by That Time to Be Able to Say When They Can.

WASHINGTON, June 21.-The Republican senators in charge of the tariff bill begin to feel that the end almost is in sight. They do not hope to conclude the consideration of the bill by the close of the present week, but they expect by that time to be able to say when they can complete the work.

As a matter of fact the difficulty of adjusting differences in their own party is causing differences in their own party is causing the managers more perplexity at present than is the open opposition to the bill in the senate. It has been found almost impossible to harmonize contending forces among Republicans on the tobacco and wool schedules. The differences on tobacco have been compromised, though not to the satisfaction of all concerned, and if there tion of all concerned, and if there should be another caucus before the tobacco schedule is taken up in the senate the question is liable to be reopened

The wool schedule will confront the senate at the opening of the week, and it is Senator Allison's purpose to press the schedule forward to a close. Hence it will be impossible to postpone for a much longer time the settlement of the differences on this question. It is expected that if the committee should not be able to announce a determination early in the week the matter will be referred to an early caucus or a caucus may be called if the committee fixes a rate not satisfactory to the wool nich. There is little doubt that an advance will be conceded by the committee but the question of interest is whether the increase will be all that the wool men

The wool schedule will, of course, give rise to an animated debate, but the Democratic senators say there is no disposition on their part to needlessly prolong it. There are also numerous articles on the free list and in the "sundry" schedule which will arouse differences of opinion, and if the Republicans do not withdraw the internal revenue feature of the bill, there will be a sharp elash over this. They are practically decided, however, to retreat from these provisions. It is also practically determined that the house provision in regard to Hawaiian sugar will be continued pending the disposition of the Hawaiian annexation treaty For the rest, the question of reciprocity and the problem presented by the trusts in connection with the tariff are still undetermined by the Republicans themselves, but there is no doubt that there will be more or less general debate upon any propositions agreed to when presented in the senate. The program in the house will be the same as during the past week. There will be two sessions, one today and another on Thursday. It is probable that the committee on rules will bring in a special order for the consideration of the bill appropriating money to repair the dry dock at the Brooklyn navyyard and the bill will no doubt be passed.

BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS.

Important Ruling by the Court of Appeals, But It Doesn't Affect the Local Associations.

The Court of Appeals rendered an important decision Saturday affecting the building and loan associations doing busi ness in this State.

The style of the case, in which the judgment of the lower court is reversed, is "John Simpson vs. the Citizens' Building and Loan Association," appeal from lows: Vernon Driskell, of Ghent, for Jefferson County. The opinion was President; Alex. Hall, Lexington, First written by Judge Hazelrigg, and was declared by such lawyers as ex-Chief Justice Pryor to be not only exceptionally able, but "unanswerable." The whole tary. The association decided upon two court was sitting.

The meaning of this opinion of reversal is, in a nutshell: Building and loan associations have no right to charge more than 6 per cent. interest, and those who are paying and have paid such institutions more are entitled to recover same; dues on shares of stock taken out in connection with a loan are construed to be "interest," and a part of the 6 per cent., in excess of which the association can Judge Hazelrigg remarked after the court adjourned that he did not believe the value of stocks in building and loan associations would be affected at all by the decision.

A part of the opinion holds not only that dues on stock taken out in connection with a borrow, are part of the six per cent. interest limit, but holds that the remedial act passed by the Legislature in 1893 ls unconstitutional. This act, which authorizes building and loan associations to charge debtors interest or its equivalent to not in excess of 12 per cent. per annum, was meant to put beyond question the right of these "mutual" associations to charge their borrowing stockholders more than the legal rate.

Frankfort. While the decision may be of special importance to some of the building and loan associations doing business in Kentucky, yet it will not affect in any way the associations here in Maysville. They have never charged over 6 per cent. interest, the dues are returned with the dividends at end of the year, and borrowers are not charged any premiums but are on an equal footing with other stockholders. While the decision may give some of the associations at other points some trouble, the stockholders of the local associations need not give themselves | Heve him to be reliable. Respectfullly, any worry over the action of the court.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

Offerings Were Moderate Last Week-Receipts Increasing Slowly-Prices lligher.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company in its circular for the week has the following:

The favorable market which we mentioned in our last report has contlined through this week, and we think we can quete even higher prices. Offerings were moderate and recelpts are slowly Increasing, though they are not nearly as large as might be expected at this time of the year, continued dry weather having made it Impossible to take down tobaeco or to pack it. These conditions have now changed, and we may look for liberal shipments. There is but very little tobacco left unsold in the hands of farmers, but of course country buyers are pretty well stocked up. What is left unsold in farmers' hands is generally held at such high figures that the country spiculator can not see his way out, even at the present advanced market. Old stocks lr market, strange to ssy, is given the preference for the time being, and we want to sgain remind holders that the best time to sell an article ls when everybody wants it. They may not want the old so much when new is offered in greater abundance. There is not much change to report with reference to tobacco setting. Of course, we hear of some planting, but remarkably little is in the field for the time of year, and a favorable season will have to set in very soou to make a crop. At this writing we are having some showers and the weather conditious seem favorable for further rainfail. The principal demand this week was for red tobacco, and in these the owners' marks were often overreached by as much as 2 and 3 cents. Manufacturers were good bidders, while speculators did their part to boom the market. A large proportion of the offerings still continue to be of the lesser grades.

Attractive Women.

Why is one woman attractive and others not? The most admirable and attractive thing about an attractive woman is her womanliness. Every body admires a womanly woman. She must have health, of course, because without it she would lose the brightness of her eyes, the fullness of her cheeks and her vivacity. Reai health must mean that a woman is really a woman. That she is strong and perfect in a sexual way, as well as in every other. That she is capable of performing perfectly the duties of maternity. Some are born with what is called "constitutional weakness." Those who do not enjoy perfect health, need only take the proper precautions and the proper remedy to become perfectly weil and strong. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescrip tion will cure any derangement of the distinctly feminine organism.
